U.S. Senate Candidate Daniel Lewis Offers Plan to Care for the Elderly

Nashville, Tennessee, March 27, 2008 – Daniel Lewis, the Libertarian Party of Tennessee’s candidate for United States Senate, believes caring for our elderly and those in poor health are too important of jobs for the government to handle. The Tennessean

http://hosted.ap.org/dynamic/stories/S/SOCIAL_SECURITY?SITE=TNNAT&SECTION=US&TEMPLATE=DEFAULT has reported that Medicare will run out of funds in 2017 and Social Security will run out of funds in 2041.

By these dates those who depend upon Medicare and Social Security will have no options available to them. Now is the time to move towards the privatization of Medicare and Social Security. This is no longer just a theoretical option being proposed by free-market economist, rather it is the only humane way for us to see to it that our elderly and those in poor health have their needs met. Congress must begin the privatization of Medicare and Social Security immediately. Elected official and candidates cannot continue to who ignore this emanate threat. Medicare and Social Security will run out of money, now it is just a question of when and not if.
