U.S. Senate Candidate Daniel Lewis opposes the FISA Amendment Act

Nashville, Tennessee, July 7, 2008 – Daniel Lewis, the Libertarian Party of Tennessee’s candidate for United States Senate, recognizes that the FISA Amendments Act (FAA) as just the latest step in a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, a design to reduce us under absolute Despotism. FAA goes a long way to destroy the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our prosperity. Members of the United States Senate are under sacred oath to “support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic... [and] bear true faith and allegiance to the same.”

Nothing should be more important to members of the United States Senate than protecting the privacy of Americans to communicate without fear the government is listening to those conversation without a warrant. Nothing should be more important preserving civil liberties and keeping the government out of our personal lives.

FAA betrays the spirit of 1776 by radically expanding the president’s spying powers and granting immunity to the companies that colluded in this illegal program. Now that the House has passed the FAA, the Senate is the last front left in the battle against immunity, and destruction of fundamental rights.

If passed on Tuesday, the National Security Agency would be able to legally collect information on American people engaged in ordinary, everyday communication without a federal warrant. Additionally, private individuals would be unable to obtain Freedom of Information Requests concerning their privacy and would be unable to sue corporations who give their private information to the government. It is time to stop the tyranny and prevent FAA from becoming law.
