U.S. Senate Candidate Daniel Lewis Calls for Alexander and Corker to Return Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae Contributions

Nashville, Tennessee, September 23, 2008 – Daniel Lewis, the Libertarian Party of Tennessee’s candidate for United States Senate calls for Senators Lamar Alexander and Bob Corker to return all the contributions they have received from PACS or individuals associated with Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae. Both Alexander and Corker voted for the bailout of Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae. Both Alexander and Corker received contributions from PACS or individuals associated with Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae, prior to voting for the bailout.

	Grand Total	Total from PACs	Total from Individuals
Corker, Bob	$7,750	$2,000	$5,750
Alexander, Lamar	$20,500	$20,000	$500

Senators Alexander and Corker should return all the contributions from PACS or individuals associated with Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae to avoid any appearances of impropriety. Campaign contributions give elected officials no reason to violate their oath of office (the bailout is not among the enumerated powers of Article I, Section 8) or engage in a communistic program of wealth redistribution that aims to correct a long series of unconstitutional and unconscionable choices on the part of the Federal Government and Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae.
